Bio

For over 27 years, Dr Lyons has been a noteworthy speaker and leader in the Chiropractic profession. You may know him from his work as the with Gonstead Methodology Institute, Gonstead Clinical Studies Society or the Center for Chiropractic Progress or from one of his speaking engagements. He is best known for entertaining his audiences by combining our philosophy, science and art in the way they were intended to be taught. When he is not traveling to present to Chiropractors across the world (which is more often than not) he resides in Green Bay Wisconsin with his wife, Dr. Brookh Lyons.

BIO

Dr. Dan Lyons is a 1996 graduate of Palmer College of chiropractic in Davenport Iowa. While attending Palmer, he participated in the Troxell intern program and served as head intern for three semesters. He graduated from the Palmer Legion of Chiropractic Philosophers, LCP (Hon), inaugural program in August 2000, and the ICA's inaugural Diplomate in Philosophical Chiropractic Standards (DPhCS) program in November 2005. In addition to being in private practice since 1996, he is been intimately involved with the Gonstead methodology Institute, as a lead instructor, as well as serving as Executive Director, Vice President, President and Treasurer. He became a Gonstead Clinical Studies Society Diplomate in 2008 and a board member in 2012. He continues to teach the Gonstead method and has been privileged to teach hundreds of seminars and workshops at five different Chiropractic colleges as well as overseas. He also routinely presents at Chiropractic Colleges, Gonstead Methodology Seminars, state conventions and for the Diplomate in Philosophical Chiropractic Standards program. When he is not practicing or teaching, he enjoys spending time with his wife and two children as well as hunting fishing and reading. He currently practices in Green Bay Wisconsin.
